Florida Keys – The La Mer Hotel & Dewey House ranked number 10 in the top 20 hotels in Florida.

The awards reflect the combined opinions of over 40,000 “Conde Nast” readers who rated various travel venues and services.

This is not the first year that the La Mer Hotel & Dewey House has achieved such great standing in Conde Nast. In 2011, the La Mer Hotel & Dewey House was ranked number 21 out of the Top 50 Small Hotels in the United States, and was recognized in 2010 with the Conde Nast Traveler Reader’s Choice Award.

The La Mer Hotel & Dewey House, part of the Southernmost Hotel Collection, are known for their unique, turn of the century feel. The two oceanfront properties have 19 quaint rooms and are Key West’s only AAA Four Diamond Oceanfront Small Luxury Hotels. With a white sand beach as a backdrop, their historic charm makes them some of the most unique accommodations on the island.

“Our team is honored to be recognized by the Conde Nast Magazine again in 2012. This is now our third year in a row that we have received such recognition from this trusted travel authority. With the Southernmost Hotel Collection’s team commitment to exceptional customer service and our continual updates to the properties, we work hard every day to be achieve such a prestigious honor,” Matthew Babich, General Manager of the Southernmost Hotel Collection states.

“The La Mer Hotel & Dewey House is one of the greatest kept secrets in Key West. The two properties are the only oceanfront bed and breakfasts on the island that are located next to Duval Street in historic Old Town,” Carrie Babich, Director of Sales and Marketing exclaimed. “They are also part of the Southernmost Hotel Collection which allows the guests to experience much more than that of a bed and breakfast if they are so inclined during their stay. It is the best of both worlds when it comes to accommodations.”
