Southernmost on the Beach

Southernmost on the Beach, in historic Old Town is just far away enough from the hustle of Key West activities, but close enough to the excitement when you want it. This hotel offers modern luxury in 124 newly renovated rooms with ocean views or partial ocean views, a private beach, oceanfront pool, Shores bar, the new Sand Bar and hammocks on the West Lawn. Our private pier offers a front row seat to the Atlantic Ocean's spectacular sunrises and early winter sunsets. It's the perfect location for a Key West vacation.

Southernmost Hotel

Southernmost Hotel located in old town on the quiet end of world famous Duval Street offers guests a resort like experience. Recently revitalized in early 2013, the hotel features 118 guest rooms with one king or two queen beds, the Pineapple Pool and Bar, the adult only Tranquility Pool and Veranda as well as access to Southernmost on the Beach amenities including: beaches, spa services, fitness center, on-site activities and charging privileges at all outlets including the open-air oceanfront Southernmost Beach Café. Also on property is the state of the art meeting room with video conferencing services.

La Mer Hotel & Dewey House

Key West's only luxury beach front bed and breakfast. Both Victorian homes with romantic amenities and exceptional service ensure an indulgent experience. Featuring 19 elegantly appointed guestrooms that offer private balconies boasting spectacular ocean and garden views. All guests are welcomed to enjoy a deluxe continental breakfast including fresh baked waffles homemade quiche, and afternoon tea on the terrace of Dewey House against the backdrop of a white sand beach.

Southernmost Beach Café

Located right on South Beach - Oceanside on the Atlantic end of Duval, it's a beach location like no other and is the most desirable setting in Key West for oceanfront dining and cocktails. Join us for breakfast, lunch or dinner or let us cater your event. It's the most picturesque setting for beach weddings, receptions, corporate events, or any other special event you wish to have.
